

Aufbix Vermuth Rosso (kopie)

Elegant yet full-bodied vermouth with a seductively sweet undertone. Perfectly balanced and indispensable in iconic cocktails like the Negroni, Manhattan, and Americano.

This unique vermouth from Slovenia is handcrafted by enriching a refined wine base with carefully selected botanicals. The result is a harmonious flavor explosion of artemisia, angelica, coriander, cardamom, and bitter orange peel, refreshed with a surprising hint of olive brine.

A unique creation that shines both neat and in a cocktail – ideal for those seeking refinement with character.
